PRESIDENT

Leader of the Pack

We want YOU to be our next PTO president! Our fearless leader's term expires at the end of the school year. We're looking for a creative problem-solver who is comfortable delegating and who can help us focus on the agenda instead of talking about our kids or the latest episode of This Is Us. A sense of humor is a big plus—and if you know how to say "no" without provoking a tantrum, even better. If you're ready to play a substantial role in supporting our school, we want to hear from you!

VICE PRESIDENT

Partner in Crime

So you'd like to get more involved in the school parent group, but you're not sure you're ready to take the lead role? Our vice president position has your name written all over it! You'll learn behind-the-scenes intel and be part of decisionmaking on important issues throughout the year. You'll help the president get things done—kind of like a superhero's sidekick, but without the silly costume.

SECRETARY

Fact Finder

Be honest—you're the one in your friend group who filled out every page in your child's baby book...at the right time, no less. If you're the kind of person who documents everything, from your toddler's first steps to how far you jogged yesterday, we have the perfect role for you. You'll get to put your stellar record-keeping skills and attention to detail to good use as our PTO secretary. You must have good listening and computer skills—and extra credit if you can follow what's on TV and play Candy Crush at the same time.

TREASURER

Number Cruncher

We have big plans to raise money and fund important projects for our school, and we need someone who likes to count every penny to help us do it. If you secretly love to categorize expenses and create color-coded pie charts, you have what it takes to be our PTO treasurer. Bonus points if your spouse teases you about how often you log in to the personal finance app on your smartphone.
