Jump Rope and Hoops for Heart

Students in grades 1-8 will be participating in the American Heart Association's (A.M.A) Jump Rope and Hoops for Heart event during their regular P.E. class time on Feb. 15. Although this is meant to be a fundraiser for the A.M.A., students are not required to raise money, but will be doing the activities during P.E. class on those days regardless. The funding is used for the prevention, education, and treatment of cardiovascular disease and stroke, which are the #1 and #3 killers in America. Last year our school raised $1,968. Our goal this year is $2000 (approximately $20/student). Mrs. Haslam handed out collection envelopes with permission slips attached. Please ask your child if he/she received one. Extra collection envelopes will be available in the office. Permission slips should be turned in before the event date and all collection envelopes with contributions are to be returned to Mrs. Haslam by Feb. 15.

I have mentioned before that there has been a focus on writing throughout RSU including narrative, expository and argumentative formats.

If you get a chance, stop in to see the bulletin board in the front hallway. Mrs. Duym's Grade One students have been reading and writing about penguins. They have on display examples of argumentative and narrative writing. In writing in the argument format, students must take a position and support it. After reading about the story of a 'pink penguin', students responded to the prompt, "Would you like to be pink? What do you think?" The narrative prompt was "If I were a penguin..." and students needed to include all the information they had learned. Their responses will readily bring smiles to your face. Great learning going on at LCS!

Student Council met last week and will sponsor 'Spirit Week' prior to February vacation. They also discussed getting new rims, nets and back boards put up on the play ground. The members will be approaching PATRONS for support in this effort. Other ideas were to have new benches put in, and having a field day in the spring. These are all in the beginning stages of organization and will be more fleshed out before the next monthly meeting. They wish to thank those parents who sent in legos for the first grade, your generosity is appreciated.

Have a great weekend!

This section shines a light on students displaying positive behaviors. The Primary Grades demonstrated safe play on the ice and with the snow this past week. They were sliding on the ice on their stomachs and using the snow to build snowmen. Nice job with positive behaviors on the playground.
