

Dear Board

We respectfully submit the following points for your consideration at tonight's meeting.

Parties to the action:

Our home is within a condo where only the unit owner(s), Kathy & I, have the right to apply and execute a building permit thus "Acadia View" should not be a defendant in this action.

"Reconsideration" versus appeal:

The CEO reaffirming there is no violation is one outcome Attorney Collier anticipated during the October 29th meeting. Wouldn't that make this a reconsideration rather than an appeal?

Date for the meeting

Although the BLU does not have specific deadlines for the Board of Appeal's response, there are numerous references that both the Planning Board & CEO should respond within 30 to 60 days.

If this action cannot be thrown out without another meeting, then we request that the meeting be held as soon as practical given notification requirements and the board's availability.

Thank you for your time & consideration.
