Member Needed – Joint Municipal Board Frenchman Bay Regional Shellfishing Committee

Due to a pending retirement, the Town of Lamoine seeks an individual to represent the municipality on the Joint Municipal Board of the Frenchman Bay Regional Shellfishing Committee. The member is appointed by the Board of Selectmen to an indefinite term and attends meetings of the Board to vote on behalf of and represent the interest of the town. Ideally, the member would have a working knowledge of the shellfishing industry. The joint municipal board sets policy regarding the 7-town ordinance that regulates the commercial and recreational harvest of clams and other shellfish.

Interested parties should contact the Lamoine Town Office at (207) 667-2242 or via e-mail: town@lamoine-me.gov.
